AVOCADO.

At Kmans Vegie, we don't just export avocados—we deliver the finest Kenyan freshness straight to the world. Our premium Hass and Fuerte avocados are hand-picked at peak perfection, selected from rich, sun-kissed farms and handled with uncompromising care. Each fruit bursts with bold flavor, creamy texture, and the unmistakable quality that sets Kenyan produce apart. With Kmans Vegie, you're not just getting avocados—you're experiencing the very best of nature, crafted for markets that demand excellence.

Our Avocados,

Origin & Growing Regions

Our avocados are sourced from Kenya's most productive, nutrient-rich regions, including:

- 1. Murang'a, Kiambu, and Nyeri*
- 2. Embu and Meru*
- 3. Nakuru, Uasin Gishu and Baringo*

Grown between 1,200–2,000 meters above sea level, Kenya's fertile volcanic soils, ideal temperatures, and reliable rainfall create perfect conditions for premium fruit development.

Varieties We Export

We supply the world's most in-demand avocado varieties:

- 1. Hass – Creamy, high oil content, long shelf life*
- 2. Fuerte – Smooth texture, rich flavor, excellent size*

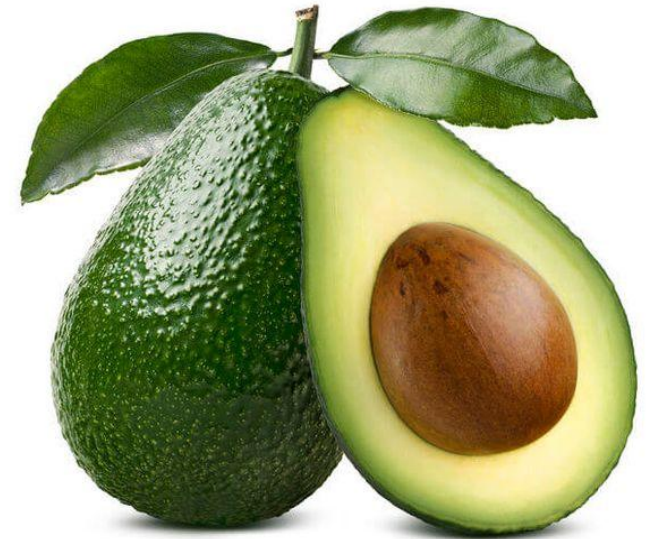

Both varieties are hand-picked at full maturity and handled with strict post-harvest standards to preserve quality and freshness.

Quality & Handling

Our avocados undergo rigorous selection and post-harvest processes:

- 1. Hand picking to avoid bruising*
- 2. Immediate pre-cooling to preserve freshness*
- 3. Careful grading by size, appearance, and maturity index*
- 4. Phytosanitary compliance for all international markets*
- 5. Export-ready packaging in 4kg, 10kg, or custom cartons*

Quality Traits: Uniform shape, firm texture, high oil content, and exceptional flavor—the hallmark of Kenyan avocados.

COFFEE.

Kmans Vegie proudly carries forward Kenya's legendary coffee heritage, exporting premium Arabica beans cultivated in the rich, sloping highlands at elevations of 1,400 to 2,000 meters above sea level. Grown in fertile volcanic soils and cool mountain climates, our coffees—featuring iconic Kenyan varieties such as SL28, SL34, Ruiru 11, Batian, and K7—deliver an unmistakable profile of vibrant aroma, bright acidity, bold, complex flavor and exceptional cup quality. Each bean is hand-picked, meticulously sorted, and expertly processed to preserve the full depth of its Kenyan character. With uncompromising quality standards and a commitment to ethical, sustainable sourcing, Kmans Vegie supplies global markets with coffee that captures the true essence of Kenya in every bean.

Our Coffee,

Origin & Growing Regions

Our coffee is cultivated in Kenya's renowned highlands, including:

- 1. Central Highlands (Kiambu, Nyeri, Kirinyaga)*
- 2. Rift Valley (Nakuru, Kericho, Nandi, Uasin Ghishu)*
- 3. Western Region (Bungoma, Mt. Elgon)*

Grown at 1,400–2,000 meters above sea level, the unique combination of volcanic soils, cool climates, and ample rainfall produces beans with unmatched quality and flavor depth.

Processing & Quality

Our quality assurance is built on precision and consistency:

- 1. Hand-picked cherries for selective harvesting*
- 2. Fully washed processing for clean, vibrant profiles*
- 3. Sun dried on raised African beds*
- 4. Rigorous grading: AA, AB, PB, Specialty Microlots*
- 5. Expert cupping for flavor verification*

Flavor Profile: Bright acidity, floral/fruity notes, full body, and a clean, complex finish—the signature of Kenyan coffee.

Coffee Varieties We Export

We proudly supply Kenya's most celebrated Arabica varieties:

- 1. SL28 & SL34 – Classic Kenyan profiles with bright acidity*
- 2. Ruiru 11 – Disease-resistant, full-bodied, sweet*
- 3. Batian – High-yield, rich flavors, clean finish*
- 4. K7 – Smooth, balanced, mild acidity*

Macadamia.

*Kmans Vegie is a distinguished exporter of Kenya's finest macadamia nuts, sourced from fertile highland regions where rich volcanic soils and ideal altitudes nurture exceptional quality. Our macadamia varieties—primarily Macadamia integrifolia and Macadamia tetraphylla—are grown by skilled smallholder farmers who follow sustainable, environmentally responsible practices. Each nut is carefully hand-picked, expertly dehusked, and rigorously graded to ensure superior crunch, rich buttery flavor, and industry-leading oil content. From raw kernels to premium-grade processed nuts, we uphold strict quality and safety standards across every stage of production. With a commitment to traceability, ethical sourcing, and global market excellence, Kmans Vegie delivers macadamia products that consistently meet the demands of gourmet food manufacturers, snack processors, and health-conscious consumers worldwide.*

Tea.

Kmans Vegie proudly exports some of Kenya's most exceptional teas, harvested from the lush, mist-covered highlands where altitudes of 1,500 to 2,200 meters create the perfect climate for world-class flavor. Grown in deep, nutrient-rich volcanic soils and nurtured by consistent rainfall, our tea varieties—including premium Black CTC, Orthodox, Green, Purple, and specialty artisan teas—are renowned for their bright color, brisk character, and rich, aromatic profiles. Each leaf is carefully hand-plucked at peak tenderness and expertly processed to preserve its natural strength, freshness, and distinctive Kenyan taste. With unwavering commitment to quality, ethical sourcing, and sustainable farming partnerships, Kmans Vegie supplies global markets with tea that embodies purity, excellence, and the vibrant spirit of Kenya in every cup.

Origin & Growing Regions

Our teas are sourced from Kenya's most celebrated high-altitude tea belts, known for producing vibrant, full-flavored leaves. Key regions include:

1. Kericho and Bomet
2. Nandi and Kerio Valley
3. Kiambu, Murang'a, and Nyeri
4. Embu and Meru Highlands

Grown at elevations of 1,500–2,200 meters above sea level, these misty highlands offer deep volcanic soils, cool climates, and year-round rainfall—conditions that create some of the world's finest teas.

Processing & Quality

We uphold strict quality and manufacturing standards to protect the natural character of Kenyan tea:

1. Hand-plucking for premium leaf selection
2. Modern processing facilities with global certifications
3. CTC and Orthodox manufacturing systems
4. Detailed grading for consistency (PF1, BP1, PD, F, Dust, Orthodox grades, etc.)
5. Expert tasting and quality evaluation by certified tea tasters

Flavor Profile: Strong, brisk, aromatic, and bright—signature attributes of top Kenyan tea.

Export & Shipping

Kmans Vegie offers efficient and reliable export services tailored to global buyers:

1. Bulk shipments in 40-kg or 50-kg sacks
2. Containerized exports (20ft & 40ft)
3. Custom packaging for specialty orders
4. Complete export documentation

Shipments are routed smoothly through the Port of Mombasa, the world's largest tea-exporting port.

Our Tea,

Tea Varieties We Export

Kmans Vegie supplies a diverse and premium range of Kenyan teas, including:

1. Black CTC Tea – Bright liquor, strong aroma, rich flavor
